

EBOLA VIRUS

A heightened awareness regarding Ebola Virus Disease (EVD) currently exists around the globe and in the United States. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the Connecticut Department of Public Health have been working steadily to improve knowledge and safety precautions related to EVD.

The following link to the CDC is provided to help stay informed about EVD. The New Fairfield Health Department and our partners in the region and the state are working together and sharing information; to prepare our communities in the event a response is needed to confirmed or suspect cases in our area.
